I also cannot use Flash or Silverlight as the video content will not be compatible with those. Can I use the element without the HTML5 video verifier and still have it display correctly? A: No, this is not possible. Even if you could make the security blanket around the video content, it would still not work because the size of the actual video is not known before hand. The video element is for media which is playable out of the browser, such as a movie file on the filesystem, or a URL to an external video. Antihypertensive effect of ramipril, a new angiotensin I-converting enzyme inhibitor. Ramipril is a new orally active angiotensin-converting enzyme (ACE) inhibitor structurally derived from captopril and was compared with captopril in a double-blind, randomized study in 14 newly diagnosed essential hypertensive patients. Both ramipril and captopril equally lowered blood pressure and heart rate and were well tolerated. Therefore, in view of the potency and safety, ramipril appears to have a favourable haemodynamic profile compared with captopril.Q: How to use Django's featured = True?
